CHAPTER ONE

Faith is a gift of God. The Gospel doesn't demand faith. It's the Word of Faith. It gives Faith!

Romans 10:17 Consequently, faith comes from hearing the message, and the message is heard through the word about Christ.

The hearing of the Gospel is the hearing of faith.

Galatians 3:2 This only would I learn of you, Received ye the Spirit by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith?

Thus the believer in Christ doesn't have a faith problem. He is a believer. Once he accepts the gospel, he accepts faith. He has faith.

The gospel deals faith to us.

Romans 12: 3 For I say, through the grace given unto me, to every man that is among you, not to think of himself more highly than he ought to think; but to think soberly, according as God hath dealt to every man the measure of faith.

It comes with salvation.

Ephesians 2: 8 For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God.

The word gift used here implies what is given without conditions. There are NO steps to faith. There is ONLY ONE way to faith - Christ. Everything God gives is given in Christ. Hence all of God's gifts carry His title; In Christ, Through Christ, By Christ, For Christ, In Him.

Romans 8: 32 He that spared not his own Son, but delivered him up for us all, how shall he not with him also freely give us all things?

2nd Peter 1:3 According as his divine power hath given unto us all things that pertain unto life and godliness, through the knowledge of him that hath called us to glory and virtue.

'All things' means everything! Believers have no needs unmet in Christ. Christ meets all the needs of mankind. In Him we are at rest. We have faith. It's ours, we are believers.

We have Christ's Righteousness!

Romans 3:24 Being justified freely by his grace through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus: 25 Whom God hath set forth to be a propitiation through faith in his blood, to declare his righteousness for the remission of sins that are past, through the forbearance of God; 26 To declare, I say, at this time his righteousness: that he might be just, and the justifier of him which believeth in Jesus.

We have Christ's Life.

1st John 5: 11 And this is the record, that God hath given to us eternal life, and this life is in his Son. 12 He that hath the Son hath life; and he that hath not the Son of God hath not life.

We have Christ's Spirit.

Romans 8:9 But ye are not in the flesh, but in the Spirit, if so be that the Spirit of God dwell in you. Now if any man have not the Spirit of Christ, he is none of his. 10 And if Christ be in you, the body is dead because of sin; but the Spirit is life because of righteousness.

The Father's Spirit, the Spirit of God is referred to in the New Testament as the Spirit of Christ; same as everything in and from the nature of the Father.

Christ has been given all the things of the Father. He has been exalted to the Father's Right hand. He administers all things for the Father. Joseph typifies the right hand. Only the Father is greater, just like Pharaoh. Christ is the giver of all things. And He gives it (them) freely. We have them.

We have Christ's faith.

The Faith of God; The Faith from God; the God-kind of Faith!

Galatians 2:20 I am crucified with Christ: nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself for me.

We are ONLY alive by His faith.

Philippians 3: 8 Yea doubtless, and I count all things but loss for the excellency of the knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord: for whom I have suffered the loss of all things, and do count them but dung, that I may win Christ, 9 And be found in him, not having mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith:

We are justified by His faith. Not ours. All things we had were (are) dung. Only His faith counts.

Galatians 3: 22 But the scripture hath concluded all under sin, that the promise by faith of Jesus Christ might be given to them that believe.

This Faith is the faith of Jesus Christ, and not ours. It becomes ours by inheritance, not works. The coming of Christ is referred to as the coming of Faith.

Galatians 3: 23 But before faith came, we were kept under the law, shut up unto the faith which should afterwards be revealed. 24 Wherefore the law was our schoolmaster to bring us unto Christ, that we might be justified by faith. 25 But after that faith is come, we are no longer under a schoolmaster. 26 For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus.

Faith in Christ (located in Him) is our justification. Not our faith in him. We believe Him only when the gospel gives us faith; His faith!

We have the spirit of faith. This is the spirit of Christ.

2nd Corinthians 4:13 We having the same spirit of faith, according as it is written, I believed, and therefore have I spoken; we also believe, and therefore speak.

It's ours. Stop trying to get faith. It's not AVAILABLE for triers, trials or praying and prayer. It's in Christ. It's freely given. You don't get it by studying the Word or hearing a message. You only find faith in Christ written in scriptures. This is not to get it, rather to acknowledge it, use it, and walk in it. It's yours in Christ.

Philemon 6 [And I pray] that the participation in and sharing of your faith may produce and promote full recognition and appreciation and understanding and precise knowledge of every good [thing] that is ours in [our identification with] Christ Jesus [and unto His glory]. (Amplified Bible)

Hope you are blessed?

Say; I don't need to get faith. I study the Word to find out the faith available in Christ. I acknowledge I have the faith of Christ. I walk in it, I use it, and it's mine.

Jesus is Lord,

We win!

CHAPTER TWO

The Believer has the Love of God, the Life of God, the Spirit of God; the Faith of God. He is of God!

1st John 4:17 Herein is our love made perfect, that we may have boldness in the Day of Judgment: because as he is, so are we in this world.

1st Corinthians 6: 17 But he that is joined unto the Lord is one spirit.

We have the same identity with God in Christ, because we bear His DNA, heredity.

2nd Peter 1: 3 According as his divine power hath given unto us all things that pertain unto life and godliness, through the knowledge of him that hath called us to glory and virtue: 4 Whereby are given unto us exceeding great and precious promises: that by these ye might be partakers of the divine nature, having escaped the corruption that is in the world through lust.

To 'partake' means to share with, have access to the same (same nature). So is the believer in Christ with God! We can't be faithless, else we are not believers!

Let's examine the work of Faith.

Mark 11: 22 And Jesus answering saith unto them, Have faith in God. 23 For verily I say unto you, That whosoever shall say unto this mountain, Be thou removed, and be thou cast into the sea; and shall not doubt in his heart, but shall believe that those things which he saith shall come to pass; he shall have whatsoever he saith.

This is the work of faith; the law of faith; faith's principle. The marginal rendering of verse 22 is IF YOU HAVE THE FAITH OF GOD or the Faith that God gives or from God.

In the originals the word "if" is present. He says this because there wasn't yet the New Creation; who has faith by the Gospel. The epistles clear this.

2nd Corinthians 4: 13 We having the same spirit of faith, according as it is written, I believed, and therefore have I spoken; we also believe, and therefore speak.

The spirit of faith is ours!

Romans 12: 3 For I say, through the grace given unto me, to every man that is among you, not to think of himself more highly than he ought to think; but to think soberly, according as God hath dealt to every man the measure of faith.

God has dealt the measure (gift) of faith to us. We have it!

Galatians 2: 20 I am crucified with Christ: nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself for me.

We have the faith of Christ; the God kind of faith; the faith of God.

So what does it do?

Many argue about whether it's the faith of God or faith in God. It's needless, the context and pretext puts the action of the principle on things and not on God.

Jesus had just cursed a fig tree;

Mark11: 14 And Jesus answered and said unto it, No man eat fruit of thee hereafter forever. And his disciples heard it...

This is literal. A tree, words spoken and men heard it. Much later they all saw the tree.

Mark 11: 20 And in the morning, as they passed by, they saw the fig tree dried up from the roots. 21 And Peter calling to remembrance saith unto him, Master, behold, the fig tree which thou cursedst is withered away.

To answer Peter's amazement, he speaks of faith. It was the work of faith. Faith in God in this context will be out of place. Jesus didn't pray to God for God to "dry" up the tree. He spoke to the tree. By the faith of God the tree dried up. He put faith to work. He expatiates;

Mark 11: 23 For verily I say unto you, That whosoever shall say unto this mountain, Be thou removed, and be thou cast into the sea; and shall not doubt in his heart, but shall believe that those things which he saith shall come to pass; he shall have whatsoever he saith.

It works by saying!

The believing part is to believe what you are saying. You shall have what you say!

"Faith works with the heart and the mouth"

Emphasis is a law in Bible interpretation. The saying of faith is mentioned 3 (three) times.

1. Whosoever shall say. 2. Shall believe those things he says 3. Shall have whatsoever he says.

He speaks of believing only ONCE. When He does, it's in relation with the saying- "Believes those things he says" This is confession!

'Homologia' in the Greek Lexicon. It means to say something in two places with the same meaning, in consent. The two places here are "The Mouth and the Heart". The mouth will speak and the heart agrees; believes.

Other references emphasize this.

Matthew 21: 21 Jesus answered and said unto them, Verily I say unto you, If ye have faith, and doubt not, ye shall not only do this which is done to the fig tree, but also if ye shall say unto this mountain, Be thou removed, and be thou cast into the sea; it shall be done.

He speaks of mountains. This refers to obstacles; hindrances; challenges. The faith of God will move mountains. It will change situations. In such cases, the faith of God isn't to talk to God about mountains. IT'S TO TALK TO THEM WITH His power; His faith. Mountains will not move until we SPEAK; by the faith of God!

The epistles teach same;

Romans 10: 8 But what saith it? The word is nigh thee, even in thy mouth, and in thy heart: that is, the word of faith, which we preach; 9 That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved. 10 For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation.

You believe in your heart and speak with your mouth - You are saved! This is the work of faith. Faith comes from the Word and its work is to "say" and "believe" what you say! YOU DON'T CONFESS TO FAITH. YOU confess i.e. speak unto the results. Faith precedes the confession.

We have faith. When we use it, it's CONFESION.

2nd Corinthians 4: 13 We having the same spirit of faith, according as it is written, I believed, and therefore have I spoken; we also believe, and therefore speak;

The spirit of faith believes and SPEAKS! The faith of God is a saying i.e. speaking faith. It changes situations and receives answers to prayers, leadings, and it is the foundation for walking in the Word.

Many of us, many times try to use faith on God, WHEN WE OUGHT TO BE USING IT ON THINGS, CIRCUMSTANCES ETC.

You will have whatsoever you say that you believe! It's a law.

Hope you are blessed?

Say; I have the spirit of faith, I walk in its confession, I believe and I say.

Jesus is Lord, We Win!

CHAPTER THREE

The believer must know how to use what he has in Christ. He has the spirit of faith. He must know how it works so he can use it.

2nd Corinthians 4:13 We having the same spirit of faith, according as it is written, I believed, and therefore have I spoken; we also believe, and therefore speak;

The spirit of faith works by speaking. It's a speaking spirit.

Jesus taught the same.

Mark 11:23 For verily I say unto you, That whosoever shall say unto this mountain, Be thou removed, and be thou cast into the sea; and shall not doubt in his heart, but shall believe that those things which he saith shall come to pass; he shall have whatsoever he saith.

Matthew 21:21 Jesus answered and said unto them, Verily I say unto you, If ye have faith, and doubt not, ye shall not only do this which is done to the fig tree, but also if ye shall say unto this mountain, Be thou removed, and be thou cast into the sea; it shall be done.

The "if" isn't for the new creation. He has the faith of God! The working is where our attention should be. Faith's confession demands situations. It changes circumstances. It receives answers to prayers. This confession is saying what we believe with our heart.

To the New creation, He has believed with his heart the gospel. He is a believer. He is never urged to believe. We believe, and thus... (because we have believed) we speak - 2nd Corinthians 4: 13.

Stop trying to believe. You are a believer. The work is speaking what we believe.

Mark 9: 23 Jesus said unto him, If thou canst believe, all things are possible to him that believeth.

Wow! POSSIBILITIES OF FAITH!

Are we urged to believe? No! We are believers.

Mark 16: 15 And he said unto them, Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature. 16 He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved; but he that believeth not shall be damned. 17 these signs shall follow them that believe; In my name shall they cast out devils; they shall speak with new tongues;

We believe the Gospel, we are henceforth called believers. "Them that believe"

Acts 2: 44 All the believers were together and had everything in common.

You don't urge or teach a fish to swim or a bird to fly. You don't teach a believer to believe. You won't read this in the epistles.

Galatians 6: 10 Therefore, as we have opportunity, let us do good to all people, especially to those who belong to the family of believers.

Our family, origin and background is called the believers' family. Our culture and nature is believing. The Gospel has been believed. We are blessed.

Hence we use our words. We use the spirit of faith. It demands situations.

Acts 3: 6 Then Peter said, Silver and gold have I none; but such as I have give I thee: In the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth rise up and walk. 7 And he took him by the right hand, and lifted him up: and immediately his feet and ankle bones received strength. 8 And he leaping up stood, and walked, and entered with them into the temple, walking, and leaping, and praising God.

Great miracle! The man born crippled walks.

A mighty miracle! Peter explains how;

Acts 3:16 And his name through faith in his name hath made this man strong, whom ye see and know: yea, the faith which is by him hath given him this perfect soundness in the presence of you all.

The afith of Christ works in His name. Peter used his words; rise and walk! The mountain moved!

Acts 14: 9 The same heard Paul speak: who stedfastly beholding him, and perceiving that he had faith to be healed, 10 Said with a loud voice, Stand upright on thy feet. And he leaped and walked.

Faith to BE HEALED! Words put to work. Done! The man is healed; He walks.

Stand upright on your feet! He spoke to the mountain.

Mark 5: 25 And a certain woman, which had an issue of blood twelve years, 26 And had suffered many things of many physicians, and had spent all that she had, and was nothing bettered, but rather grew worse, 27 When she had heard of Jesus, came in the press behind, and touched his garment. 28 For she said, If I may touch but his clothes, I shall be whole. 29 And straightway the fountain of her blood was dried up; and she felt in her body that she was healed of that plague. 30 And Jesus, immediately knowing in himself that virtue had gone out of him, turned him about in the press, and said, Who touched my clothes? 31 And his disciples said unto him, Thou seest the multitude thronging thee, and sayest thou, Who touched me? 32 And he looked round about to see her that had done this thing. 33 But the woman fearing and trembling, knowing what was done in her, came and fell down before him, and told him all the truth. 34 And he said unto her, Daughter, thy faith hath made thee whole; go in peace, and be whole of thy plague.

Jesus said FAITH made her whole. He never mentioned God.

Why?

God gave the healing and faith to receive. It's up to us to use our faith.

How did faith do it?

Verse 28 For she said...!

She spoke the results before it came.

Original rendering: "She kept SAYING".

She must have said it in the kitchen, bathroom, lying down, sitting down. She said it and it was done. Remarkably, Jesus wasn't planning a healing crusade. He was trying to get Jairus' house.

THE POWER WAS GOING FORWARD. FAITH changed the direction. BROUGHT IT BACK TO HER! Just like Abraham, she refused to further cooperate with the mountain.

Romans 4: 17 (As it is written, I have made thee a father of many nations,) before him whom he believed, even God, who quickeneth the dead, and calleth those things which be not as though they were. 18 Who against hope believed in hope, that he might become the father of many nations, according to that which was spoken, So shall thy seed be. 19 And being not weak in faith, he considered not his own body now dead, when he was about an hundred years old, neither yet the deadness of Sarah's womb: 20 He staggered not at the promise of God through unbelief; but was strong in faith, giving glory to God; 21 And being fully persuaded that, what he had promised, he was able also to perform.

He wasn't feeling sorry about his conditions. He was speaking his faith.

When we use our faith, we call the things that be not as though they were.

We say we are blessed when it's not looking good.

We are healed, when the pain is there.

Many times we are busy describing the mountain. Complaining about it, asking God "why the mountain is there"?

We tell people, we tell it on Facebook. And we are yet to speak to the mountain!

We call the things that are the way they are and they remain the same.

Mark 11: 23 For verily I say unto you, That whosoever shall say unto this mountain....he shall have whatsoever he says

Matthew 21: 21...If ye have faith... shall say unto this mountain, Be thou removed, and be thou cast into the sea; it shall be done.

Faith has never failed to change situations.

Some have told how they allegedly used faith and it didn't work! Not bible faith. Not the faith of God and not the Spirit of faith. We have no such evidence in scriptures.

Faith NEVER fails!

Hope you are blessed?

Say; I use my faith, I speak to and not about mountains, I HAVE WHATSOEVER I SAY!

Jesus is Lord, We Win!
